Philadelphia, Pa., June 24.-The Ath lectics handily defeated Washington in double-header to-day, winning the first game by 9 to 2 and the second by 6 to 3. Cantillon Purchases Milan from the Both contests were draggy and were characterized by hard hitting by the home team.

The Athletics had a walk-over in the first game, giving as pretty an exhibition of hitting as has been seen at Columbia Park this season. From the start th Athletics got busy with their bats, but it was not until the fourth inning that the began to really loosen up, and then, an the following inning, they hammered the ball to all quarters of the field. With the hope of stemming the tide of bas hits Smith was taken out after the fifth, and Sam Edmonston substituted. Only one inning was required to get the young pitcher's measure, and the seventh inning was a nightmare to the Nationals, the home batsmen pulling together five stops, and Jim Delahanty had a rather busy session at third.

Dygert struck out the side in the first iming, and though the Athletics got two men on bases, there was no scoring. The Nationals broke into the run column in the second, Anderson hitting safely, stealing second, taking third on Altizer's out, and stealing home, a bad pitch saving him at the plate. The lead was only temporary, as the Athletics got busy in the third. Hartzel's walk, Nichols' sacrifice, doubles by Seybold and Davis, Oldring's single and steal, and Schreck's hit chalking up four runs.
